

PERM5 call for abstracts - Submission deadline: 8th March 2022
5th Phosphorus in Europe Research Meeting (PERM5) - 22 June 2022

<https://phosphorusplatform.eu/espc4>

Submission deadline: 8th March 2022

PERM5 is in partnership between ESPP, ETA Florence and BioRefine Cluster Europe

PERM4, June 2021, brought together 370 participants online (see summary in SCOPE Newsletter n°141). PERM5 will follow on from the 4th European Sustainable Phosphorus Conference in Vienna and online (hybrid) with an expected 250 – 300 participants in Vienna plus as many online.

There is no fee to submit abstracts. The abstract format is the same for oral presentations and for posters. Abstracts submitted for ESPC4 in 2021 and not selected will be automatically forwarded and considered for PERM5.

1) Presentations for parallel sessions (10 minutes)

PERM5 will include 2 sets of 3 parallel sessions (one set in the morning, one in the afternoon) on:

- Iron and phosphate interactions in P-recovery and in agronomy
- Nutrient recovery from dairy industry processing
- Other R&D themes depending on abstracts received, probably including:
 - From research to implementation: studies or experience of how to convert research results and recommendations into user uptake or policy changes
 - New fertilisers and biostimulants to improve crop nutrient uptake
 - Farm-to-Fork Zero Pollution: reducing P losses from agriculture
 - Greenhouse emissions and LCA for nutrient recycling processes
 - Nature based solutions for nutrient abatement
 - Nutrient recycling through decentralised sanitation / separative urine systems
 - Nutrient flow studies for cities, regions, countries
 - other to be defined as a function of abstracts received

2) Posters

Can be on any theme relating to phosphorus and nutrient sustainability, management or recycling.

Posters will be displayed both at ESPC4 (if an author is present) and at PERM5 and will be published via the onsite/online networking app for all ESPC4 and PERM5 registrants, and in the online conference proceedings.

Abstracts should be sent by 8/3/2022 to info@phosphorusplatform.eu in the following format:
